

An aerial photograph of a large building complex, possibly a school or university campus. The main building has a prominent orange-tiled roof and a large circular structure. A yellow rectangle highlights a section of the building's roof and the area immediately surrounding it. The surrounding area includes parking lots with many cars, other buildings, and green spaces with trees. The text "Rozsah územia na spracovanie návrhu" is overlaid in yellow on the right side of the image, with a line pointing to the highlighted area.
