Your rights in the protection of personal data

Right of access - you have the right to be provided with a copy of the personal data we hold about you, as well as with information on how we use your personal data. In most cases your personal data will be provided to you in written, paper form, unless you request another means of provision. If you have requested this information by electronic means, it will be provided to you electronically, where this is technically possible.

Right to rectification - we take reasonable steps to ensure that the information we hold about you is accurate, complete and up to date. If you believe that the data we hold is inaccurate, incomplete or out of date, please do not hesitate to ask us to amend, update or supplement this information.

Right to erasure (right to be forgotten) - you have the right to ask us to erase your personal data, for example where the personal data we have obtained about you is no longer necessary for the original purpose of the processing. However, your right must be assessed in the light of all relevant circumstances. For example, we may have certain legal and regulatory obligations, which means that we will not be able to comply with your request.

Right to restriction of processing - in certain circumstances you are entitled to ask us to stop using your personal data. This concerns, for example, cases where you believe that the personal data we hold about you may be inaccurate, or where you believe that we no longer need to use your personal data.

Right to data portability - in certain circumstances you have the right to ask us to transfer the personal data you have provided to us to another third party of your choice. The right to portability, however, concerns only personal data that we have obtained from you on the basis of consent or on the basis of a contract to which you are one of the contracting parties.

Right to object - you have the right to object to the processing of data that is based on our legitimate interests. If we do not have a compelling legitimate ground for the processing and you raise an objection, we will no longer process your personal data.

Right to lodge a request to initiate proceedings on the protection of personal data - if you believe that your personal data is being processed unfairly or unlawfully, you may lodge a complaint with the Office for Personal Data Protection of the Slovak Republic, Budova Park One, Námestie 1. mája 18, 811 06 Bratislava, tel. +421 2 3231 3214, e-mail: statny.dozor@pdp.gov.sk.

Your personal data is processed and protected in accordance with the EU Regulation on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and with Act No. 18/2018 Coll.
